

Public Meeting Notice

You're invited to consider proposed changes to the Municipality of Kincardine Zoning By-Law
Wednesday, November 13, 2024 at 5 p.m.

The purpose of the open house and public meeting to complete comprehensive update to the Municipality of Kincardine's local Zoning Bylaw. The Zoning Bylaw is a legal document that specifies how land can be used through regulations (property setbacks, building heights etc.) and permissions (residential, commercial, agricultural, etc).

The Municipality's current Zoning Bylaw is 21 years old. The purpose of the comprehensive review is to ensure that the Zoning Bylaw reflects the updated Official Plan, current practices, changes to provincial policy, and supports the strategic directions of the Municipality.
